THE PALACE,
MYSORE.

8th September 1947.

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF MYSORE

On the 8th of January of this year, eight months ago, I conveyed in a message to my people, my desire that steps should be taken for further constitutional progress and fuller association of my people in the administration of my State. I recalled that the Royal House of Mysore had ever been ready to recognise the legitimate desires of my people and meet their reasonable aspirations. I repeated that the torch of constitutional progress—a family heritage, handed down to me by my revered predecessors—shall not be dimmed, but shall ever continue to burn brighter with the passage of time. I directed my Dewan to submit to me proposals regarding constitutional progress in my State, after due consultation with all sections and classes of my people and after taking note of the course of discussions and events in the rest of India. Events of great significance have occurred during the interval. Momentous decisions had to be taken and I have had the benefit of the mature advice of my Dewan who, while taking note of public feeling and sentiment, has also kept steadily in view the vital interests of the State of Mysore and its people. My people are aware that the State of Mysore has acceded to the Dominion of India. I am happy to learn that the representatives of my people will have now an opportunity to play their role in the larger life of the Indian Dominion Legislature. My Dewan has had necessarily to delay the submission of the proposals regarding the future constitution.

The statement which has recently been issued by him has my approval. It is my intention that the new Constitution should provide for the establishment of Responsible Government in my State.

I have noted with pleasure the resolution of loyalty and grateful thanks which the Consultative Committee convened to assist the Dewan in framing constitutional proposals has submitted to me. It is my desire that this Committee and such other bodies as may be found necessary may all co-operate in enabling the Dewan to place detailed proposals before me in accordance with my declared intention. In my Message to my people I stated that any scheme of reforms suggested should fulfil the one great objective which I have at heart—that it should ensure equal opportunities for all and promote the security, contentment and happiness of my dear people. I trust that in framing the scheme of Responsible Government, this primary objective will be kept in view and necessary provisions devised to ensure its being achieved. I call upon all my people to loyally co-operate with the administration and to see that peace and tranquillity prevail in the State.

Jaya Chamaraja Wadiyar
